

Tech Info Library

System 7: TrueType Large Text Sizes

Revised: 9/10/91
Security: Everyone

System 7: TrueType Large Text Sizes

=====

Article Created: 26 July 1991
Article Last Reviewed:
Article Last Updated:

TOPIC -----

When using TrueType, is there a limit to how large text size may be?

DISCUSSION -----

One of the benefits of TrueType is that characters can now be generated at any point size up to 32,000 points. However, almost all applications currently limit text size to 127 points. Also, some limit the number of size selections possible. Some applications do their own scaling for sizes above 60 points.

Copyright 1991 Apple Computer, Inc.

Tech Info Library Article Number:8359