Tech Info Library

AppleShare 3.0: Compact Volume Access Privileges Menu

```
Revised:        10/15/91
Security:       Everyone
```

AppleShare 3.0: Compact Volume Access Privileges Menu

===

```
Article Created: 15 October 1991
Article Last Reviewed:
Article Last Updated:
```

TOPIC ---

Using the Compact Volume Access Privileges menu, an administrator can perform Parallel Data Structure (PDS) compaction on a volume.

DISCUSSION ---

PDS compaction removes PDS entries derivable from their parent, and gives dynamic access privileges. File service starts up faster after compaction.
This operation is safe to do on CD-ROMs because it's impossible to drag folders to another location.

Copyright 1991 Apple Computer, Inc.

Tech Info Library Article Number:8955