The following article is the "CD Extras ReadMe" from the System 7.5 Multi-Pack Upgrade Kit.

DISCUSSION -----

About CD Extras

IMPORTANT If you have questions about third-party application programs in the CD Extras Folder, contact the software vendor directly. The telephone number or address for each vendor is located with the software program.

The Apple and third-party utilities included in this folder add powerful functionality to System 7.5. The various tours in this folder will help you learn and use new System 7.5 features. The folder includes the following:

PowerTalk Extras

- Personal gateways from third-party vendors let you take advantage of PowerTalk's Mailbox for sending to and receiving from a variety of sources, including CompuServe, faxes, the Internet, pagers, and QuickMail. When installed on your Macintosh or PowerBook computer, a personal gateway and provides direct access to a specific communication service.
- Apple's PowerTalk Direct Dialup Mail lets you exchange mail with PowerTalk users everywhere-not just on your computer network. If you have a modem and a telephone line, you can connect to other PowerTalk users and exchange mail and documents.
- The PowerTalk Tour gives you an overview of PowerTalk features.

QuickDraw GX Extras

- QuickDraw GX Print Extensions by Pierce Software, Inc. enhance your QuickDraw GX printing capabilities. With programs that support QuickDraw GX, the print extensions let you print watermarks in the background of each page and print 2,3,4, 6, 9, or 16 pages on each printed page.
- Linotype-Hell's QuickDraw GX Type Expo is a tour of new features found in QuickDraw GX fonts. Your computer must be configured correctly to run the Type Expo, or the system crashes. For configuration information, see the Read Me file that comes with the software.

Other Extras

- a solitaire game called Eric's Solitaire Sample that includes Klondike and Eight-off (by Delta Tao Software, Inc.)
- Macintosh QuickTime 2.0 extras
- software to upgrade to PlainTalk version 1.3 and At Ease version 2.0.3
