Megaphone: Sound Input Device Already in Use (9/96)

===

Article Created: 13 September 1996

TOPIC ---

When I attempt to open MegaPhone, an error message occurs stating that the sound input device is already in use. What causes this error message?

DISCUSSION --

Step 1

From the Apple menu, open the Extensions Manager control panel.

Step 2
------
* Global Village Telport Gold IIv modems:

Verify that the the following extensions are on (checked):
- Internal Modem Sounds
- Serial Update 406
- Telephone Manager Extension

* Global Village Telport Platinum V modems:
Verify that the the following extensions are on (checked):
- Audio Volume Extension
- Processor Info Extension
- Serial Update 406
- Telephone Manager Extension

Step 3

Close the Extensions Manager window and restart your computer. MegaPhone should run correctly.
